SATURDAY

Message From Rabbi Roz

Dear Ohef Sholom Temple Friends,

It was the prophet Isaiah in the 6th BCE who first declared, “My House shall be called a House of Prayer for all Peoples.” Two and a half millennia later, in 1846, Ohef Sholom took up the charge and declared it to the world, by engraving these words above our sanctuary.

For the past 175 years, we have been living the most vital, meaningful and joyful Judaism imaginable. What a remarkable milestone – to be celebrating with our community the best that our tradition offers in worship, education, and deeds of loving kindness. The contributions of our members to the building up of the religious, civic, social service, and arts of Hampton Roads illustrate the highest Jewish values — to be good, to do good work, and, in doing so, to repair and better our society and world.

Mazel Tov to us on a truly awesome legacy. May we grow from strength to strength — l'dor v'dor — from generation to generation forevermore.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Rabbi Roz". The script is fluid and cursive, with a long, sweeping tail on the final letter.

Rabbi Roz Mandelberg
