A MESSAGE FROM OUR RABBI

Dear OST Members and Friends,

The Ethics of Our Fathers, Pirkei Avot, teaches us, “Make for yourself a rabbi, acquire for yourself a friend.”

Avot d’Rabbi Natan asks: “How does one acquire a friend?” He answers, “A person should acquire a friend for himself by eating and drinking with him, by studying Torah and debating with him, by lodging with him, by sharing private thoughts with him - thoughts regarding Torah and life. And when they debate matters of Torah and importance, his friend will respond to him, and thus the bonds of friendship and truth will be strengthened.”

Clearly friendship is highly regarded in Judaism. We need others with whom we can socialize, eat, drink, and have fun. We need people whom we respect and trust with whom we can share honestly our most intimate thoughts and feelings, our ideas and dreams, and our struggles and triumphs. For it is in our relationships with each other that we find our truth and are strengthened and uplifted.

This OST Directory helps us to do exactly those things – to reach out to our sacred community members in myriad of ways, from inviting them to share coffee and a meal to joining us for worship services and Torah study, from engaging in meaningful conversations to conducting business transactions, and from checking in to see how they are to offering a lending hand for whatever they might need.

If these past few months of living with the Coronavirus have taught us anything, it is just how interconnected and interdependent we are. So I invite you to use this precious resource to acquire for yourself a friend! May the bonds of friendship strengthen all of us as together we return to the fullness of life.

With love from your rabbi,

Rabbi Rosalin Mandelberg

As we celebrate 175 years as a congregational family, we are grateful to all of the founders and leaders who came before us, laying the foundation for the strong, loving community we are so privileged to be a part of. May we continue to grow together, uplift each other, and shine light into the world for the next 175 years and beyond.

L'shalom,
Rabbi Roz and Cantor Jen

To my beloved Ohef Shalom Community:

As I soon take my leave to move to parts North, I offer thanks to each and every one of you for the many years we have known each other, the prayers we have spoken, the bread we have broken, the friendships we have nurtured, the laughter and the tears we have shared, the songs we have sung, the work we have accomplished, and the good times we've had. You will always be with me, held close in my heart! Come visit me!
